Description

Haven is a beautiful Bay Broodmare that's been with her owner since a Weanling! She just had her new Sooty Buckskin filly today 3/20! Haven was broke to ride but owner has only used her for breeding. Shes had 6 foals total now and is an excellent Mama to them all! All her foals have been buckskins when bred to the owners Cremello stallion Pale Ale! She had one red chocolate colt but was bred to a different stallion. The sire to this filly is her Cremello stallion Pale Ale! Last year Haven hurt her eye and lost her sight in the eye so she's being sold as a broodmare only. Haven is about 75% Rocky Mountain. Her Sire High Voltage passed away last year but he was an accomplished black RM stallion! Her Dam goes back to Yankee and Yankee Clipper! Haven is bred to CR'S Pale Ale so guaranteed to have another beautiful Buckskin baby! She's priced great because her baby is worth at least 4500-5500! Haven is up to date on her vaccines, worming, feet, coggins & health cert! Located in Nicholasville, KY.
