

Sweet 12.1 Bay Pony

Description

Maui is an 8 yr old 12.1 hand bay appaloosa gelding. He's mostly solid with a smattering of white spots, varnishing in his coat, mottled skin, and striped hooves! He's annoyingly in your pocket - so he needs a hand that can be gentle but firm so he doesn't get pushy. Maui LOVES people. He's a confident pony that has places to go and things to see. He is no slouch. He's forward and wants to move out. I would not put a beginner rider on this pony unless he gets more consecutive riding. He would benefit from a youth rider who has some skill and needs a step-up horse that isn't silly. Maui may do well for a youth rider looking to compete. He's afraid of little, and his personality is HUGE!! Maui would be ok for a lead-line rider. He's big enough for a small adult to hop on and give some refresher training rides. Speaking of which, he would benefit from some wet saddle pads. Maui hadn't been ridden for 3 years before the video of him on this ad was filmed. He was ridden bareback in a halter and was a great equine citizen. If you're going to use a saddle make sure the fit is good, he is a good kind boy but does not like poor fitting tack. Maui is current on vaccines (February 2025), farrier (January 2025 - he's due to be trimmed April 4th), deworming (December 2024).
